
Dalhousie Peninsula Campuses Shower Report

Encouraging Active Transportation through the presence of End-of-Trip Facilities

Caroline King & Raleigh King

The Government of Western Australia's Department of Sport and Recreation's office is leading by example and setting the wheels in motion for more healthy, active workplaces in the region by installing a "bike wall". The office's foyer has been transformed into a safe and secure bike storage area and supports existing shower and change room facilities offered for staff who use active transport to get to work. Shower Locations

PURPOSE

Workplaces can support and encourage their employees to adopt active transportation by providing secure bicycle storage, lockers and shower facilities.

The purpose of this report is to identify shower facilities on Dalhousie's Peninsula Campuses which includes Studley, Sexton and Carleton that may be used by those in the Dalhousie Community that use active transport.

METHODS

For this project, all washroom facilities owned by Dalhousie and located on the Peninsula were visited from June 19, 2012 to September 4, 2012. If a shower was present in the building then the location (building, unit, floor & room number), washroom classification (male, female or both), maintenance requirements, shower type (private, not private or semi-private), and additional notes on recommendation were recorded. Pictures were taken of all shower facilities with exception of those located in buildings that used to be residential. For shower facilities located in buildings that used to be residential, a verbal account of the shower was received from an individual that works in the building. This was assumed sufficient because these facilities are only accessible to those that work in the building. All residences have showers for those residing there.
